- tour booking and organization

- 2 (3?) wine tastings (visit to the vineyards and cellars, lecture concerning cultivation and wine-making techniques; tasting of at least 3 wines, olive oil tasting and/or typical products such as cheese, ham; min. duration 2 h)
- 2 lunch; 1 welcome dinner, 1 farewell dinner
- transfer within Tuscany by minivan or bus with chauffeur during the entire tour

notice: van rental with chauffeur, are rather expensive in Tuscany; therefore, in case of a group arriving by plane, from an EU country, if interested in buying a certain quantity of wine, it might be cheaper to send the van/bus to Tuscany, directly from their country; that would be useful both to transfer the group around Tuscany, and to bring back the wine (intra EU countries, up to 120 bottles per person, for private use, without any custom declaration); that solution would remarkably cut down the budget per person listed above; in any case, there's no problem to organize a groupage of all the purchased wines, and land ship them to destination at rather convenient price within EU not included in the price:

- Air tickets, travel insurance, insurance for possible cancellation (notice: these aspects of the tour are of the client's responsibility, included visa and any necessary documentation to entry into Italy).
- Any necessary transfer from other Italian regions to Tuscany and vice versa

c) Terms, conditions

- Pls NOTICE: we are NOT travel agents, but free-lance travel consultants, wine experts and tour operators. Therefore we don't provide air tickets, nor travel or cancellation assurance. Clients might eventually ask their local travel agent, to take care of these aspects of the tour, including if necessary, collecting the money and acting with us, as an "official" partner in the organization of the tour

- Contract: when the group leader would be able to collect a minimum number of participants on a tour, we will send an agreement (= proforma invoice), containing the terms of payment, cancellation, responsibilities etc. Let's anticipate just a couple important details:

1) account payment: in order to confirm all the bookings and services, as soon as the tour is confirmed, upon receiving our pro-forma invoice, we request the partner agent, or group leader, to forward to us, via bank money transfer, 50% of the total amount, as confirmation account payment. The remaining balance is due 30/20 days before arrival or eventually, CASH upon arrival. pls NOTICE in general, with just a few exceptions, no info about the wineries, nor about the accommodation (except pictures) we selected for the group, will be released, before receiving the account payment.

2) cancellation policy: generally for possible cancellation of a single person or of the all group, we refer to what established by Italian law; in any case, a cancellation fee of 100% of the account payment will be applied no matter when the cancellation of the entire tour was communicated. However, we and the holiday resort, would offer the guests the opportunity not to waste the account payment, booking our services and the same accommodation, in any alternative period, depending on availability
